

AWARDS NOMINATIONS REQUESTED DEADLINE – April 15, 2023

We are pleased to announce the 2023 WWHHA Awards Program. These awards are intended to recognize and honor those who have contributed the most to research, writing and service to the history of the Wild West. Nominations are due by April 15, 2023. Please furnish the name, full address with zip code, phone number with area code, and email address, if applicable, for each person nominated. Winners will be announced and awards presented at the WWHHA Convention in July. Come and celebrate with us!

NOTE 1: In keeping with the WWHHA Focus and Goals, the specific subjects eligible for consideration are “Lawmen, Outlaws, Gunfighters, Rustlers, Vigilantes, Shady Ladies, Frontier Scouts, Buffalo Hunters, Feuds, Cattle Trails, Cowtowns, Indian Wars, and Mining Camps.” The core time period is from 1850 to 1925 but may begin earlier or carry over later. Nominated works outside these subjects will not be considered.

NOTE 2: In an effort to recognize and encourage new authors, the winners of literary awards (both books and articles) must not have won in the same category in the previous year.

I. WWHHA Six-Shooter Award for Lifetime Contributions to Wild West History

- This award is given to an individual who, over an extended period of time (suggested 25+ years), has contributed significantly to the field of research and documentation of Wild West history.
- The nomination must be made by a WWHHA member.
- The nomination should be in typed format with a thorough discussion of why the nominee should be recognized, including citing of research, published books or articles, memberships in Western History organizations, and any other specific acts to confirm nominee’s extensive activities.
- The nomination must be signed by the nominator.

II. WWHHA Six-Shooter Award for Best Book on Wild West History - $500.00 CASH PRIZE!

- Submission may be made by a WWHHA Member, the author, or the publisher.
- The book must have been published in 2022
- Subject matter should be for the core period from 1850-1925 but can begin earlier or carry over after this time period.
- Nominated books will be judged on the basis of content, accuracy, readability, and overall presentation of material (including but not limited to historical photographs, documents, newspaper accounts of the time, military records, court records, diagrams, charts, etc.) and quality of editing (typos, image, cover design, layout, table of contents, index, end notes and bibliography).
- Three copies of each book should be submitted for review by the panel.

III. WWHHA Six-Shooter Award for Best Article on Wild West History - $250 CASH PRIZE! (Two Awards)
